I am in HUGE favor of this most responsible idea. This increases the use of certain sub-bands while still encouraging incentive licensing ideals to get more bandwith. It would also provide the bandwith to encourage morse code proficiency and a place to practice on-air. Please look favorably on this suggestion.